No matter where you are in Kentucky, the good times will be ready to roll.

If there's one thing we know how to do in Kentucky, it's how to have fun. From the bustling energy of our cities to the laid-back charm of our rural countryside, you'll find that the commonwealth provides a wealth of places to enjoy with your friends & family.

Many visitors to Kentucky quickly discover that our mid-size cities are the perfect size for a getaway — small enough so getting around is a breeze, but big enough to hold a multitude of cultural & entertainment attractions. In downtown areas across Kentucky, you'll find thriving art galleries, one-of-a-kind museums, lively entertainment districts & spectacular restaurants.

Of course if it's total relaxation you want, then a trip through Kentucky's unmatched countryside is a must. To match its scenery, Kentucky has some of the finest state parks in the nation. Many offer modern lodges & cabins so you can enjoy the comforts of home after a day in the wilderness hiking, biking or horseback riding. Nearly all our state parks feature campgrounds as well.

With more running water than any other state in the continental United States, Kentucky is a great choice for anglers & boaters. And if you think Kentucky is beautiful above ground, it's simply breathtaking below ground. The limestone rock on which the state sits is dotted with cave systems including the world's longest. Take a few hours to enjoy a tour of one & you'll leave Kentucky with a whole new perspective.

Whether it's a family vacation or a weekend road trip with your friends, Kentucky is a great place to unwind or cut loose.
